

CONVENTION UPDATE

JEA/NSPA SPRING NATIONAL HIGH SCHOOL JOURNALISM CONVENTION
APRIL 12-14, 2018 • MARRIOTT MARQUIS • SAN FRANCISCO

Please make the following changes in your printed convention program. These changes have been made in the app.

CORRECTIONS

Page 7: Photo caption. Photo was taken at sunrise, not sunset.

Page 31: Contest 47 starts at 8 a.m.

CANCELLATIONS

"AEJMC Scholastic Journalism Division mid-year meeting" at 1-6 p.m. Thursday in Foothill G1 has been canceled.

"The latest in AEJMC scholastic Journalism research" at 11 a.m. Friday in Sierra D has been canceled.

ROOM CHANGES

"Covering a tragedy in your publication" at 11 a.m. Friday has been moved to Salon 8, Lower B2 Level.

"These are the only photos we have?" at 11 a.m. Friday has been moved to Foothill C, Second Level.

SPEAKER CHANGES

Jeff Browne will replace Kathy Craghead for "Spit. And Polish." at 11 a.m. Friday in Salon 12-13.

Gina Claus will replace Mimi Orth for "True color or off color" at 9 a.m. Friday in Nob Hill A-B.

Sameena Usman will replace Zahra Billoo for "Muslims, minorities and the media" at 2 p.m. Friday in Salon 9. Meghan Bobrowsky will coordinate the Q&A for this session.

C.E. Sikkenga will replace Melissa McCoy for "Elevate your work with editing" at 10 a.m. Saturday in Sierra I.

Paloma Flores will replace Brisa Yepez on "Cultural appropriation" at 10 a.m. Saturday in Sierra K.

NEW SPEAKER BIOS

PALOMA FLORES is a member of the Pit River Nation of northern California. She is the program coordinator for the SFUSD Indian Education Program, Title VII and has been with Access and Equity since 2013. As a student, Flores focused on Native American and ethnic studies at the University of California, Berkeley. She works with students and their families to ensure their specific cultural, emotional, social and academic needs are met.

10 a.m. Saturday, Sierra K

SAMEENA USMAN is a government relations coordinator and frequent media spokeswoman for the Council on American-Islamic Relations in San Francisco. A graduate of San Jose State University, where she majored in political science and minored in communications, Usman works on legislation important to the Muslim community. Usman has appeared on MSNBC and NBC Bay Area and in the Los Angeles Times and San Francisco Chronicle.

2 p.m. Friday, Salon 9